INDIVIDUAL DEVELOPMENT

PRIVATE COACHING

Focused coaching built around practical technique, movement, game understanding and confident match play.

1-ON-1

PRIVATE SESSIONS

Clear instruction and practical drills that carry directly into real matches.

Competitive experience helps shape sessions around decision-making, pressure and practical execution.

PLAY BETTER. COMPETE SMARTER.

From individual fundamentals to match play, the goal is clear, energetic training that you can use on court.

LEARN TOGETHER / PROGRESS TOGETHER

SMALL GROUP COACHING

Train with friends, develop your skills and build confidence in a focused, supportive group environment. Coach Nix combines clear instruction with practical exercises that connect technique, movement and tactical awareness to real match situations.

Sessions bring together technical drills, partner practice and match-based play, with coaching feedback to help players understand what to improve and how to apply it. The small group format encourages shared learning, communication and better decision-making on court.

TECHNIQUE / TEAMWORK / MATCH CONFIDENCE

Coaching experience with players from Vietnam, Singapore, Hong Kong, Australia and other international pickleball communities.

INTERNATIONAL GROUP TRAINING

LARGE GROUP COACHING

30-40

AUSTRALIAN PLAYERS

Experience coaching international groups through structured, energetic on-court sessions.

Coach Nix brings players together for purposeful group training that combines technical development, movement and match-based drills. The focus is on clear instruction and practical skills that players can carry directly into their next game.

Sessions combine demonstrations, partner exercises and guided play to reinforce shot consistency, positioning and decision-making. A group setting creates opportunities to learn from others, practise communication and apply coaching cues in varied match situations.

For visiting clubs and international groups, training also offers a shared sporting experience: develop skills, enjoy friendly competition and strengthen connections through pickleball.

COMMUNITY / CONNECTION

HOST SOCIAL GAMES

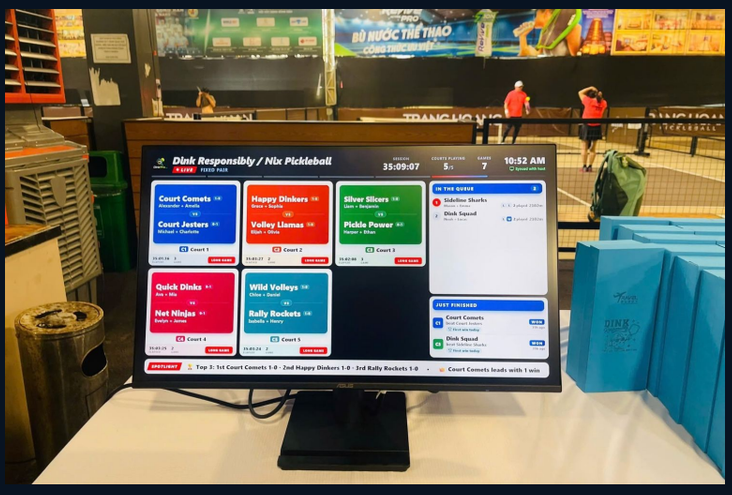

Nix Pickleball Global delivers professionally organized Social Open Play sessions powered by a modern app, alongside international pickleball tournaments for partners, businesses and organizations.

By combining technology with a community-focused approach, we create welcoming experiences that bring players together, encourage friendly competition and build lasting connections on and off the court.

TRAIN / COMPETE / CONNECT

ORGANIZE TOURNAMENTS

International pickleball tournaments and friendly internal competitions for partners, businesses, organizations and international groups - bringing together organized match play, community connection and a memorable event experience.

SINGAPORE / INTERNATIONAL COACHING

WORKSHOPS AND CLINICS

40-50

PARTICIPANTS / SINGAPORE CLINICS

Structured group learning with clear demonstrations, active practice and practical coaching cues.

Coach Nix creates energetic learning experiences that connect technical development with real match play. Workshops and clinics bring players together to explore technique, movement and tactical awareness in a supportive, international setting.

01

UNDERSTAND

Clear demonstrations and simple cues to explain the purpose behind each skill.

02

PRACTISE

Guided drills and activity stations that keep players engaged and moving.

03

APPLY

Match-based exercises that connect technique, positioning and decision-making.

The aim: help players leave with a clearer understanding of the game, practical skills to continue developing and stronger connections within the pickleball community.

THE COACHING APPROACH

COACHING PHILOSOPHY

PLAY BETTER.
COMPETE SMARTER.
CONNECT FURTHER.

From individual fundamentals to large international clinics, the goal is simple: create training that is clear, energetic and directly transferable to real matches.

Competitive experience shapes sessions around decision-making, pressure and practical execution. Every session is an opportunity to develop technique, understand the game and build confidence on court.

Pickleball also creates connections. Through coaching, social games and tournaments, Nix brings players together to learn, compete and enjoy a shared sporting experience.
